Southern Illinois Criminal Justice Training Program Mobile Team Unit 15 Training Announcement Distance Learning - Live Video Training Name of Class Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force 142167 14257 142588 142588 142588 142588 1425		Southorn Illinois Cui	minal I	unting Trai	ning Du
Training Announcement Distance Learning - Live Video Training Name of Class Cause UP Aumo of Class Cause UP Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force 142167 20263/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 20278/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description Intervention of Safety, Accountability, Fauress & Equipt - Today (SAFE-T) Act requires law enforcement of Cores to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. 2026 Defense of Dereino - Prohibited Use of Force by a Police Officer 2026 Defense of Dereino - Prohotited Use of Force by a Police Officer 2030 Otter Property - Duty to Render Aid - Duty to Intervene 2030 Due Process - Search Warrants	SUBILE TEAM UNIT				ning Pr	ogram
Distance Learning - Live Video Training Name of Class Course ID# Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force 142167 71825 Date of Training Time Hours Zoom Meeting ID# 02/28/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Doscription The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-T) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives Prohibited Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: • Defense of Person • Prohibited Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: • Defense of Person • Prohibited Use of Force by a Police Officer • Defense of Dwelling • Use of Force by an aggressor • Duty to Render Aid • Duty to Render Aid • Due Process • Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Anendments): • Reasonable Use of Force • Civit Liability • Due Process • Search Warrants • Due Proces • Civit Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Offi		SICJTP * Mobile Team Unit 15
Name of Class Class 10# Course 10# Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force 142167 71825 Date of Training Time Hours Zoom Meeting ID# 02/28/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-7) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force by a Police Officer • Defense of Other Property • Prohibited Use of Force • Duty to Render Aid • Defense of Other Property • Prevention of Escape • Duty to Render Aid • Due Forces • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Due Process • Search Warrants • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer of force or Civil Liability • Olive Infaction /de-certification Marking Attorney. Jon • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer cortifica	THENRORCEMENT TRUT
Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force 14216 71825 Date of Training Time Hours Zoom Meeting ID# 02/28/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-T) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/LCS 5/7: Defense of Person • Prohibited Use of Force by a Police Officer • Defense of Other Property • Prevention of Escape • Duty to Intervene • Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): • Reasonable Use of Force • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Search Warrants • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification that included not invision part as a staff Attorney and as Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included notinuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorney. Don retired in 2008 and continues to ins
Date of Training Time Hours Zoom Meeting ID# 02/28/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-T) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/LCS 5/7: • Defense of Person • Prohibited Use of Force by a Police Officer • Defense of Dwelling • Prohention of Escape • Defense of Drece by an aggressor • Duty to Render Aid • Dus of Force by an aggressor • Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4th & 8th Amendments): • Reasonable Use of Force • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Search Warrants Ethical Issues: • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification /de-certification	Name of Class					Course ID#
02/28/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-T) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/LCS 5/7: Defense of Dwelling Defense of Dwelling Defense of Dwelling Defense of Dwelling Defense of Drece hy an aggressor Duty to Render Aid Duty to Render Aid Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): Reasonable Use of Force Investigative (Terry) Stops	Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force142167
Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-7) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: Defense of Person Prohibited Use of Force by a Police Officer What is Deadly Force Defense of Other Property Prevention of Escape Duty to Render Aid Prevention of Escape Duty to Render Aid Prevention Stope Due Process Escassive Use of Force Civil Liability Oualified Immunity Police Of	Date of Training	Date of Training Time		Zoom Meeting ID#
The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-7) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force . This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: • Defense of Person • Defense of Dwelling • Defense of Other Property • Use of Force by an aggressor • Making Arrest • Duty to Render Aid • Making Arrest • Duty to Render Aid • Making Arrest • Duty to Render Aid • Reasonable Use of Force • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Search Warrants • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Protection for Hullinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's officer of 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senio Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Conthinuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois State's Attorney and as Senio Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Conthinuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorney and as senio Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Conthinuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Special Information regarding Distance Learning Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without comprosmising the qualify the training The 'Distance Learning' format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without comprosmising the qualify of the training when companed. It one-servent as device capable of audio	02/28/2024	/28/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6			273-189-3752
enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: • Defense of Dwelling • Defense of Other Property • Use of Force by an aggressor • Use of Force by an aggressor • Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): • Reasonable Use of Force • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Due Process • Search Warrants Ethical Issues: • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification previously served with the Illinois Afpellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included in 2008 and continues to instruct police officer throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning tops, searches, and the use of force and the intervent of the uses compliand from amodates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes Participation in Distance Learning format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning interve in the class must participate in the class must participate in the dates and porticipate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU	Course Description
This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: • Defense of Person • Prohibited Use of Force by a Police Officer • Defense of Other Property • What is Deadly Force • Use of Force by an aggressor • Duty to Render Aid • Making Arrest • Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): • Reasonable Use of Force • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Search Warrants • Ethical Issues: • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification • Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney, Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force)	enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning
 Defense of Person Defense of Dwelling Defense of Other Property Defense of Other Property Use of Force by an aggressor Duty to Render Aid Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4th & 8th Amendments): Reasonable Use of Force Investigative (Terry) Stops Due Process Search Warrants Excessive Use of Force Civil Liability Qualified Immunity Police Officer certification/de-certification Direversion Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force). Special information regarding Distance Learning the ouelity of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Undividuals wishing to paresonone wiall monitor e	· · · ·
 Defense of Dwelling Defense of Other Property Use of Force by an aggressor Making Arrest Duty to Render Aid Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4th & 8th Amendments): Reasonable Use of Force Investigative (Terry) Stops Due Process Search Warrants Excessive Use of Force Civil Liability Qualified Immunity Police Officer certification/de-certification The volume of the US conset. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois State's Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special Information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participate in ong with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MU115 website. We mu	This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7:
 Reasonable Use of Force Investigative (Terry) Stops Due Process Search Warrants Ethical Issues: Excessive Use of Force Civil Liability Qualified Immunity Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Don Hays is an Atorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney, Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participation in the class to verify full participate on the credit or the training and issuing certificates.	Defense ofDefense ofUse of For	What is Deadly Force Prevention of Escape Duty to Render Aid
Due Process Search Warrants Ethical Issues: Search Warrants Excessive Use of Force Excessive Use of Force Civil Liability Qualified Immunity Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Instructor Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes Aution of no several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.
Ethical Issues: • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Instructor Image: Comparison of the previous of the previde	_			· · · ·	6
 Excessive Use of Force Civil Liability Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes Participation in Distance Learning format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class to verify full participate on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.	Due Proce
 Qualified Immunity Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.
Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.			- previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.
This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.	previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.
The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.	Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.	Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes
This class is partially funded and certified by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board	training on several f Participation in Dist device capable of a service via the inter the MTU 15 website attendance, evaluat both video and aud	topics, without compromising the qualit ance Learning classes can be accomp udio and video participation along with net. Individuals wishing to participate e. We must have attendee information tion, and student handouts, prior to the io activated on their device. MTU 15 p	y of the train lished from a the ability to in these clas as we emai class. Part ersonnel wil	ning, when compare almost any location o connect with the " ses must still regist I the necessary doo icipants in the class I monitor each class	ed to in-perso . It does requ Zoom Meetin ter for the clas cuments to rec must particip	n classes. iire a gs" ss through cord
	This cla	ass is partially funded and certified by the Illino	is Law Enforce	ement Training and Star	ndards Board		