Course Description

This dynamic and fast paced course is designed to train officers in the fundamentals and tactical skill sets required during high-risk patrol operations. The focus of this program will be to provide officers with the knowledge, specialized tactical skill sets, and strategic understanding to be able to manage and perform three critical high-risk patrol functions: building searches, felony traffic stops, and arrest team tactics. This course provides officers with the foundational knowledge and tactical skills necessary to safely manage these types of incidents.
