Course Description

This course is intended for law enforcement instructors and training officers. Developing solid lesson plans is essential for providing police officers with proper training. Law enforcement instructors/ trainers need to know the proper content, organization and format for developing accurate lesson plans to provide their officers with the best training possible..

Course Objectives

- Properly completing ILETSB Form A2
- Learning what content to include in a lesson plan
- List and discuss the content and organization of an ILETSB certified lesson plan
- List the purposes of a lesson plan
- Demonstrate the development of a lesson plan using the ILETSB Lesson Plan Template

Participants should bring a copy or copies of the department's in-house lesson plans on a thumb drive to review and discuss during class.

Instructor

Van Muschler is currently SILEC Field Monitor and Part-Time Academy Coordinator for Southwestern Illinois College. Van is a very experienced lesson plan writer for ILETSB.
