<section-header> Southern Illinois Criminal Justice Training Program Mobile Team Unit 15 Training Announcement Constance Learning - Live Video Training Constance Learning Porton Constance Learning Porton Constance Learning Porton Constance Learning Constance Provide Constance Provide Constance Provide Constance Provide Constance Provide Reard Reard Provide Reard Reard<</section-header>		Southown Illinois Cui	minal I	unting Trai	ning Du	0.000
Image: Second	NONLE TEAM UNIT				ning Pr	ogram
Name of Class Class UP Course UP Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force 142168 71825 Date of Training Time Hours Zoom Meeting ID# 05/15/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-7) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Dejectives Proteincudes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: Defense of Preson Protections of the US constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): Due Process Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and forme the Continuing Legal Education Division that Stafe's Attorney. Don and as Senior Stafe Coursel, He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division Stafe Attorney and as one to staft Coursel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that use of izons in staft Attorney and as senior Staff Coursel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that use of izons in staft Attorney and as senior Staff Coursel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that use of izons in staft Attorney		* SICJTP * Mobile Team Unit 15
Name of Class Class 10# Course 10# Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force 142168 71825 Date of Training Time Hours Zoom Meeting ID# 05/15/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-7) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 57: • Defense of Person • Prohibited Use of Force • Defense of Other Property • Prevention of Escape • Deterso of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 ^m & 8 th Amendments): • Reasonable Use of Force • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Search Warrants Ethical Issues: • Excessive Use of Force • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification • Dreviously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecuto's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal	TENFORCEMENT THE
Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force 142168 71825 Date of Training Time Hours Zoom Weeting ID# 05/15/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-7) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force by a Police Officer • Defense of Person • Prohibited Use of Force by a Police Officer • Defense of Owelling • Prohibited Use of Force by a pagressor • Use of Force by an aggressor • Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): • Reasonable Use of Force • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification de-certification / de
Date of Training Time Hours Zoom Meeting ID# 05/15/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-7) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: • Defense of Person • Prohibited Use of Force by a Police Officer • Defense of Dwelling • Proteotion of Escape • Defense of Drece by an aggressor • Duty to Render Aid • Making Arrest • Duty to Render Aid • Due Process • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Search Warrants Ethical Issues: • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification /de-certification /de-certification /de-certification /de-certification Instructor • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Poloice Officer certificat	Name of Class					Course ID#
05/15/2024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6 273-189-3752 Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-7) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: • Defense of Dwelling • Defense of Drece by an aggressor • Duty to Render Aid • Duty to Intervene • Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): • Reasonable Use of Force • Investigative (Terry) Stops • Due Process • Excessive Use of Force • Excessive Use of Force • Doin Hays is an Attorney-at-Law and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included in 2008 and continues to instruct police officer sthroughout the state. Mandates met by this training verterowed for the following mandates: Civii Rights, Constitutional Use	Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force 142168
Course Description The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-7) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/LCS 5/7: Defense of Person Defense of Other Property Defense of Other Property Defense of Other Property Dety to Render Aid Duty to Render Aid Due Process Search Warrants Due Process Search Warrants Due Process Search Warrants Dus Provention for Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Diverse as a Staff Attorney and as Senio Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Drive Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Staff Counse I. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Staff Counse I. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Staff Counse I. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Staff Counsel and as Senio Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal E	Date of Training Time		Hours	ours Zoom Meeting ID#
The Illinois Safety, Accountability, Fairness & Equity – Today (SAFE-T) Act requires law enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force . This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/LCS 5/7: Defense of Person Defense of Dwelling Defense of Other Property Use of Force by an aggressor Making Arrest Duty to Fonder Aid Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): Reasonable Use of Force Due Process Ethical Issues: Ethical Issues: Excessive Use of Force Ethical Issues: Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois State's Attorney and as Senio fortal Hours of Total County Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois State's Attorney and as Senio fortal Hours of Total County Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois State's Attorney and as Senio fortal Hours of Total County Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois State's Attorney and as Senio fortal Hours with Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Special Information regarding Distance Learning Live Video Classes Participation in Distance Learning format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning the with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these class must participate with the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we a	05/15/2024	024 08:30 – 14:30 hrs 6		273-189-3752
enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning Stops, Searches and Use of Force. This training satisfies that requirement. Course Objectives This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: • Defense of Dwelling • Defense of Other Property • Use of Force by an aggressor • Making Arrest • Duty to Render Aid • Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4 th & 8 th Amendments): • Reasonable Use of Force • Due Process • Due Process • Due Process • Search Warrants Ethical Issues: • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning stops, searches, and the use of force or adverse is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning desses can be accomplished from almost still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information any location. It does require a device capable of audio	Course Description
This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7: Defense of Person Defense of Dwelling Defense of Other Property Use of Force by an aggressor Duty to Render Aid Duty to Render Aid	enforcement officers to receive 6 hours of training every three years on Laws Concerning
 Defense of Person Defense of Dwelling Defense of Other Property Use of Force by an aggressor Duty to Render Aid Duty to	· · ·
 Defense of Dwelling Defense of Other Property Use of Force by an aggressor Making Arrest Duty to Render Aid Duty to Intervene Protections of the US Constitution (Specifically the 4th & 8th Amendments): Reasonable Use of Force Investigative (Terry) Stops Due Process Search Warrants Excessive Use of Force Civil Liability Qualified Immunity Police Officer certification/de-certification This course is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special Information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes. Paticipation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to conneat with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MU 15 wesite. We must have attendee information as we email the neclass must participa	This course includes a detailed presentation on the following Illinois Use of Force laws, 720/ILCS 5/7:
 Reasonable Use of Force Investigative (Terry) Stops Due Process Search Warrants Ethical Issues: Excessive Use of Force Civil Liability Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class to verify full participate on the class. Participants in the class to verify full participate on prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.	Defense cDefense cUse of Fo	What is Deadly ForcePrevention of EscapeDuty to Render Aid
Due Process Search Warrants Ethical Issues: Excessive Use of Force Civil Liability Qualified Immunity Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Toon Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes Participation in Distance Learning format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and is	Prot	tections of the US Constitution (Sp	ecifically t	he 4 th & 8 th Amen	dments):
Ethical Issues: • Excessive Use of Force • Civil Liability • Qualified Immunity • Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Instructor Image: Comparison of the provided state of the provided Excessive Use of Force Civil Liability Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participation in pricipate on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.
 Qualified Immunity Police Officer certification/de-certification Instructor Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.
Don Hays is an Attorney-at-Law, and former Macoupin County, Illinois State's Attorney. Don previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.			- previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired in 2008 and continues to instruct police officers throughout the state. Mandates met by this training This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.
This course is approved for the following mandates: Civil Rights, Constitutional Use of Law Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.	previously served with the Illinois Appellate Prosecutor's office for 30 years as a Staff Attorney and as Senior Staff Counsel. He oversaw the Continuing Legal Education Division that included continuing legal education for Illinois State's Attorneys and law enforcement officers. Don retired Enforcement Authority, Legal Updates, Use of Force (Law concerning stops, searches, and the use of force) Special information regarding Distance Learning - Live Video Classes The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.
The "Distance Learning" format for live-video classes provides a convenient method for the presentation of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.	Enforcement Au		-			e use of training on several topics, without compromising the quality of the training, when compared to in-person classes. Participation in Distance Learning classes can be accomplished from almost any location. It does require a device capable of audio and video participation along with the ability to connect with the "Zoom Meetings" service via the internet. Individuals wishing to participate in these classes must still register for the class through the MTU 15 website. We must have attendee information as we email the necessary documents to record attendance, evaluation, and student handouts, prior to the class. Participants in the class must participate with both video and audio activated on their device. MTU 15 personnel will monitor each class to verify full participation prior to recording credit for the training and issuing certificates.	Spe	cial information regarding Distan	ce Learnir	ng - Live Video C	lasses
This class is partially funded and certified by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Roard	training on several f Participation in Dist device capable of a service via the inter the MTU 15 website attendance, evaluat both video and aud	topics, without compromising the qualit ance Learning classes can be accomp udio and video participation along with net. Individuals wishing to participate e. We must have attendee information tion, and student handouts, prior to the io activated on their device. MTU 15 p	y of the train lished from a the ability to in these clas as we emai class. Part ersonnel wil	ning, when compare almost any location o connect with the " ses must still regist I the necessary doo icipants in the class I monitor each class	ed to in-perso . It does requ Zoom Meetin ter for the clas uments to rec must particip	n classes. lire a gs" ss through cord
This class is partially funded and confifted by the fundois barr Enforcement framing and standards board	This cla	uss is partially funded and certified by the Illino	is Law Enforce	ement Training and Star	ndards Board		