Course Description

This course is designed to train officers to become High Risk Traffic Stop Instructors. These new instructors will then be able to teach the fundamentals and tactical skill sets to officers in their own departments that are required during high-risk traffic stops. Through dynamic scenario-based role-playing training this course will provide officers with the foundational knowledge, specialized tactical skill sets, and strategic understanding to be able to manage and perform the critical high-risk traffic stop functions. Each student will have multiple opportunities to perform “teach backs” to the class to demonstrate their understanding of the topics and improve their teaching skills.

Officers must have attended the end user course for High-Risk Traffic Stops/ De-escalation Techniques class prior to this instructor course.

Course Objectives

- Explain why high-risk traffic stops techniques were developed.
- Identify and discuss use-of-force and safety priority issues related to high-risk traffic stop incidents.
- Describe the appropriate and necessary equipment to be used when conducting these types of operations, including weapons and ammunition and uniform/identification requirements.
- Demonstrate practical knowledge and performance ability while conducting high-risk traffic stop operations, as well as movement formations, verbal skills, firearms handling/deployment skills, and working as a team.
- Properly take a suspect into physical custody.
- Demonstrate proper use of cover, concealment, and time.
- Properly perform High-Risk traffic stops.
- Properly and effectively instruct other officers in the above objectives
