Course Description

The 4E instructor course is a two-day course designed to present a progressive and adaptive training platform that provides mission critical solutions for today's and tomorrow's challenges to safety. This class is designed to give participants intensive training in active shooter situations and become an effective instructor in the 4E program.

This program is designed to accommodate a building's needs for active shooter/intruder scenarios. The 4E program is targeted at civilian response to an active shooter/intruder situation (i.e. teachers, administrators, unarmed security, board members, employees, etc.)

Course Objectives

After completing the 16-hour Instructor Class, the participant will be able to instruct classes for his/her police department, school district, place of business, or house of worship. Tier One Tactical Solutions will also provide continuing support and guidance to instructors in order to facilitate implementation of the training to your organization.

Training will be hands on and intensive; therefore, participants are advised to wear loose fitting clothing and tennis shoes.

Instructor

This class was developed and will be instructed by Officers Mike Fumagalli and Corey Zavorka of Tier One Tactical Solutions, LLC. The founders of Tier One Tactical Solutions bring 50 years of law enforcement experience to their training efforts, including more than 10 years specializing in active shooter response.
