| Introduction to Red Dot Sights (Pistol)         142830         7379           Date(s) of Training         Time         Hours         Location           Southeastern Illinois College           May 3, 2024         8:30 A.M4:30 P.M.         8         Southeastern Illinois College Rd.Harrisburg, IL 62946           Course Description           This class is intended to familiarize students with the Miniaturized Red Dot pistol (MRDS) platform. RedDot methodology will be discussed as well as gear and gun considerations. Specific drills are introduceto make the student more familiar and confident with a new sight system. The three major focal points vbe: finding the dot on presentation, tracking the dot under recoil, and addressing dot specificmalfunctions. How to zero your gun will be shown and explained. Low light shooting will also beaddressed (range permitting) as it relates to RDS pistols. Officers will shoot several courses of fire anddrills, including decision-making drills. Firearms Instructors will benefit from this class, as they will beginto see more and more of these guns showing up in classes. Instructors having a baseline understandinof the system will benefit their students. Students will shoot the State 30 round in-service qualificationcourse. Loaner red dot guns and holsters are available for use for agencies considering them.           Course Objectives           • Understand MRDS nomenclature.           • Understand MRDS patient be dot.           • Note to dot / Track the dot. <th <="" colspan="2" th=""><th>SICILITY SICILITY</th><th colspan="6">Southern Illinois Criminal Justice Training ProgramMobile Team Unit 15Training Announcement</th></th>   | <th>SICILITY SICILITY</th> <th colspan="6">Southern Illinois Criminal Justice Training ProgramMobile Team Unit 15Training Announcement</th>   |                    | SICILITY SICILITY           | Southern Illinois Criminal Justice Training ProgramMobile Team Unit 15Training Announcement |  |             |            |  |  |
|---|---|--------------------|-----------------------------|---|--|-------------|------------|--|--|
| Date(s) of Training         Time         Hours         Location           May 3, 2024         8:30 A.M4:30 P.M.         8         Southeastern Illinois College3:57 College Rd.Harrisburg, IL 62946           Course Description           This class is intended to familiarize students with the Miniaturized Red Dot pistol (MRDS) platform. RedDot methodology will be discussed as well as gear and gun considerations. Specific drills are introducedto make the student more familiar and confident with a new sight system. The three major focal points tobe: finding the dot on presentation, tracking the dot under recoil, and addressing dot specificmalfunctions. How to zero your gun will be shown and explained. Low light shooting will also beaddressed (range permitting) as it relates to RDS pistols. Officers will shoot several courses of fire anddrills, including decision-making drills. Firearms Instructors will benefit from this class, as they will beginto see more and more of these guns showing up in classes. Instructors having a baseline understandinof the system will benefit their students. Students will shoot the State 30 round in-service qualificationcourse. Loaner red dot guns and holsters are available for use for agencies considering them.           Course Objectives           •         Understand MRDS nomenclature.         •         Understand setting up an MRDS pistol.           •         Understand Addressing MDSD malfunctions and fixe•         •         Understand Address malfunctions and fixe•           •         Understand MRDS nomenclature,•         •         Understand setting up an MRDS pistol.  | Name of Training Class ID#  |                    |                             |   |  |             | Course ID# |  |  |
| May 3, 2024       8:30 A.M4:30 P.M.       8       Southeastern Illinois College3575 College Rd.Harrisburg, IL 62946         Course Description         This class is intended to familiarize students with the Miniaturized Red Dot pistol (MRDS) platform. RedDot methodology will be discussed as well as gear and gun considerations. Specific drills are introduce:to make the student more familiar and confident with a new sight system. The three major focal points vbe: finding the dot on presentation, tracking the dot under recoil, and addressing dot specificmalfunctions. How to zero your gun will be shown and explained. Low light shooting will also beaddressed (range permitting) as it relates to RDS pistols. Officers will shoot several courses of fire anddrills, including decision-making drills. Firearns Instructors will benefit from this class, as they will beginto see more and more of these guns showing up in classes. Instructors having a baseline understandinof the system will benefit their students. Students will shoot the State 30 round in-service qualificationcourse. Loaner red dot guns and holsters are available for use for agencies considering them.         Course Objectives         • Understand MRDS nomenclature.       • Understand setting up an MRDS pistol.         • Understand drold and holdover of MRDS.       • Understand MRDS malfunctions and fixe: Understand zero and holdover of MRDS.         Structor         MTU 15 Police Training Assistant Doug Wilson has over 25 years of police experience. Doug is aFirearms Instructor, Use of Force Instructor, EEVOC Instructor, TASER Instructor and has been asupervisor, FTO, and Special Response Team member/ sniper, and has taught for the  | Introduction to Red Dot Sights (Pistol)   |                    |                             |   |  |             | 73792      |  |  |
| May 3, 2024       6.30 A.M.4:30 P.M.4:30 P.M.       8       3575 College Rd.Harrisburg, IL 62946         Course Description         This class is intended to familiarize students with the Miniaturized Red Dot pistol (MRDS) platform. RedDot methodology will be discussed as well as gear and gun considerations. Specific drills are introducedto make the student more familiarize students with the Miniaturized Red Dot pistol (MRDS) platform. RedDot methodology will be discussed as well as gear and gun considerations. Specific drills are introducedto make the student more familiar and confident with a new sight system. The three major focal points vbe: finding the dot on presentation, tracking the dot under recoil, and addressing dot specificmalfunctions. How to zero your gun will be shown and explained. Low light shooting will also beaddressed (range permitting) as it relates to RDS pistols. Officers will shoot the essential distribution of the system will benefit from this class, as they will beginto see more and more of these guns showing up in classes. Instructors having a baseline understandinof the system will benefit their students. Students will shoot the State 30 round in-service qualificationcourse. Loaner red dot guns and holsters are available for use for agencies considering them.         Understand MRDS nomenclature.       • Understand Setting up an MRDS pistol.         Understand MRDS nomenclature.       • Understand MRDS malfunctions and fixe• Understand Zero and holdover of MRDS.         MTU 15 Police Training Assistant Doug Wilson has over 25 years of police experience. Doug is aFirearms Instructor, Use of Force Instructor, EEVOC Instructor, TASER Instructor and has been asupervisor, FTO, and Special Response Team member/ sniper, and has taught for the MTU   |   |                    |                             |   |  |             |            |  |  |
| This class is intended to familiarize students with the Miniaturized Red Dot pistol (MRDS) platform. RedDot methodology will be discussed as well as gear and gun considerations. Specific drills are introducedto make the student more familiar and confident with a new sight system. The three major focal points vbe: finding the dot on presentation, tracking the dot under recoil, and addressing dot specificmalfunctions. How to zero your gun will be shown and explained. Low light shooting will also beaddressed (range permitting) as it relates to RDS pistols. Officers will shoot several courses of fire anddrills, including decision-making drills. Firearms Instructors will benefit from this class, as they will beginto see more and more of these guns showing up in classes. Instructors having a baseline understandinof the system will benefit their students. Students will shoot the State 30 round in-service qualificationcourse. Loaner red dot guns and holsters are available for use for agencies considering them.Understand MRDS nomenclature.Understand MRDS nomenclature.Understand et / Track the dot.Find the dot / Track the dot.Understand zero and holdover of MRDS.InstructorMTU 15 Police Training Assistant Doug Wilson has over 25 years of police experience. Doug is aFirearms Instructor, Use of Force Instructor, EEVOC Instructor, TASER Instructor and has been asupervisor, FTO, and Special Response Team member/ sniper, and has taught for the MTU 15 Pair-TirAcademy for much of his police career. Doug's goal is to teach police officers to become "ThinkerFighters".Required Equipment• 350 rounds of factory ammunitionEye and ear protection• Full duty belt• Permanent marker• Sight adjustment tool for your optic.• Duty handgun (3 magazines) with MRDS opticMust be of a design that allows for co-witnessing with the mechanical ("iron") sights on the handgutMandates Met by This TrainingDe-escalation Techniques - Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of ForceOfficer safety Techniques, | May 3, 2024   |                    | 4:30 P.M.                   | _   | 3575 College Rd.Harrisburg, IL 62946 |             |            |  |  |
| Dot methodology will be discussed as well as gear and gun considerations. Specific drills are introduced to make the student more familiar and confident with a new sight system. The three major focal points of the finding the dot on presentation, tracking the dot under recoil, and addressing dot specific and utils, including decision-making drills. Firearms Instructors will benefit from this class, as they will begin to see more and more of these guns showing up in classes. Instructors having a baseline understanding of the system will benefit their students. Students will shoot the State 30 round in-service qualification course. Loaner red dot guns and holsters are available for use for agencies considering them.  Course Objectives  Understand MRDS nomenclature. Understand maintenance of MRDS system. Find the dot / Track the dot. Understand maintenance of MRDS. Instructor  MTU 15 Police Training Assistant Doug Wilson has over 25 years of police experience. Doug is a Firearms Instructor, Use of Force Instructor, EEVOC Instructor, TASER Instructor and has been a supervisor, FTO, and Special Response Team member/ sniper, and has taught for the MTU 15 Part-Tir Academy for much of his police career. Doug's goal is to teach police officers to become "Thinker Fighters".  Required Equipment Store of a design that allows for co-witnessing with the mechanical ("iron") sights on the handgu Must be of a design that allows for co-witnessing with the mechanical ("iron") sights on the handgu Difference Officer safety Techniques – Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of Force Officer safety Techniques – Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of Force Officer safety Techniques – Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of Force Officer safety Techniques – Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of Force Officer safety Techniques – Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of Force Officer safety Techniques – Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of Force Officer safety Techniques – Law Concerning Sto  |   |                    | Cours                       | se Desc   | ription                                  |             |            |  |  |
| <ul> <li>Understand MRDS nomenclature.</li> <li>Understand maintenance of MRDS system.</li> <li>Find the dot / Track the dot.</li> <li>Understand Zero and holdover of MRDS.</li> <li>Understand MRDS malfunctions and fixes</li> <li>Successfully pass the qualification exam.</li> </ul> Instructor MTU 15 Police Training Assistant Doug Wilson has over 25 years of police experience. Doug is a Supervisor, FTO, and Special Response Team member/ sniper, and has taught for the MTU 15 Part-Tir Academy for much of his police career. Doug's goal is to teach police officers to become "Thinker Fighters". Required Equipment • 350 rounds of factory ammunition • Eye and ear protection • Full duty belt • Permanent marker • Sight adjustment tool for your optic. • Duty handgun (3 magazines) with MRDS optic Must be of a design that allows for co-witnessing with the mechanical ("iron") sights on the handgut Must be of a design that allows for co-witnessing with the mechanical ("iron") sights on the handgut Must be of a design that allows for co-witnessing Stops, Searches, and the Use of Force Officer safety Techniques, Including Cover, Concealment, and Time.   | be: finding the dot on presentation, tracking the dot under recoil, and addressing dot specific malfunctions. How to zero your gun will be shown and explained. Low light shooting will also be addressed (range permitting) as it relates to RDS pistols. Officers will shoot several courses of fire and drills, including decision-making drills. Firearms Instructors will benefit from this class, as they will begin to see more and more of these guns showing up in classes. Instructors having a baseline understanding of the system will benefit their students. Students will shoot the State 30 round in-service qualification |                    |                             |   |  |             |            |  |  |
| <ul> <li>Understand maintenance of MRDS system.</li> <li>Find the dot / Track the dot.</li> <li>Understand zero and holdover of MRDS.</li> <li>Differentiate between red dot &amp; iron sight</li> <li>Understand MRDS malfunctions and fixes</li> <li>Successfully pass the qualification exam.</li> </ul> Instructor MTU 15 Police Training Assistant Doug Wilson has over 25 years of police experience. Doug is a Firearms Instructor, Use of Force Instructor, EEVOC Instructor, TASER Instructor and has been a supervisor, FTO, and Special Response Team member/ sniper, and has taught for the MTU 15 Part-Tir Academy for much of his police career. Doug's goal is to teach police officers to become "Thinker Fighters". Required Equipment 350 rounds of factory ammunition Eye and ear protection Full duty belt Permanent marker Sight adjustment tool for your optic. Duty handgun (3 magazines) with MRDS optic Must be of a design that allows for co-witnessing with the mechanical ("iron") sights on the handgut Mandates Met by This Training De-escalation Techniques ~ Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of Force Officer safety Techniques, Including Cover, Concealment, and Time.  | Course Objectives   |                    |                             |   |  |             |            |  |  |
| MTU 15 Police Training Assistant Doug Wilson has over 25 years of police experience. Doug is aFirearms Instructor, Use of Force Instructor, EEVOC Instructor, TASER Instructor and has been asupervisor, FTO, and Special Response Team member/ sniper, and has taught for the MTU 15 Part-TirAcademy for much of his police career. Doug's goal is to teach police officers to become "ThinkerFighters".   | <ul> <li>Understand maintenance of MRDS system.</li> <li>Find the dot / Track the dot.</li> <li>Differentiate between red dot &amp; iron sights.</li> <li>Understand MRDS malfunctions and fixes.</li> </ul>  |                    |                             |   |  |             |            |  |  |
| <ul> <li>350 rounds of factory ammunition</li> <li>Eye and ear protection</li> <li>Full duty belt</li> <li>Permanent marker</li> <li>Sight adjustment tool for your optic.</li> <li>Duty handgun (3 magazines) with MRDS opticMust be of a design that allows for co-witnessing with the mechanical ("iron") sights on the handgu</li> <li>Mandates Met by This Training</li> <li>De-escalation Techniques ~ Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of ForceOfficer safety Techniques, Including Cover, Concealment, and Time.</li> </ul>  | MTU 15 Police Training Assistant Doug Wilson has over 25 years of police experience. Doug is a Firearms Instructor, Use of Force Instructor, EEVOC Instructor, TASER Instructor and has been a supervisor, FTO, and Special Response Team member/ sniper, and has taught for the MTU 15 Part-Time Academy for much of his police career. Doug's goal is to teach police officers to become "Thinker  |                    |                             |   |  |             |            |  |  |
| <ul> <li>Eye and ear protection</li> <li>Full duty belt</li> <li>Permanent marker</li> <li>Sight adjustment tool for your optic.</li> <li>Duty handgun (3 magazines) with MRDS opticMust be of a design that allows for co-witnessing with the mechanical ("iron") sights on the handgu</li> <li>Mandates Met by This Training</li> <li>De-escalation Techniques ~ Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of ForceOfficer safety Techniques, Including Cover, Concealment, and Time.</li> </ul>  | Required Equipment  |                    |                             |   |  |             |            |  |  |
| De-escalation Techniques ~ Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of ForceOfficer safety Techniques, Including Cover, Concealment, and Time.   | <ul> <li>Eye and ear protection</li> <li>Full duty belt</li> <li>Permanent marker</li> <li>Sight adjustment tool for your optic.</li> </ul>   |                    |                             |   |  |             |            |  |  |
| De-escalation Techniques ~ Law Concerning Stops, Searches, and the Use of ForceOfficer safety Techniques, Including Cover, Concealment, and Time.   | Mandates Met by This Training   |                    |                             |   |  |             |            |  |  |
|   | [   |                    | Techniques ~ Law Co         | ncerning S  | Stops, Searches, and the Use             |             |            |  |  |
| This class is partially funded and certified by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board   | Th  | is class is partia | lly funded and certified by | the Illinois I  | aw Enforcement Training and Stan         | dards Board |            |  |  |