

Police Executive Role in the 21st Century

Starts March 4, 2025 - Carbondale police Department
501 S Washington St, Carbondale, IL 62901

Police Executive Role in the 21st Century is a comprehensive and exciting program designed to guide law enforcement leaders in the right direction with the professional development necessary for successful leadership in today's law enforcement agencies. PER21C will challenge you to think strategically and with a vision to take your organization to the next level.

Recognized as a career path development tool, PER21C is the course for top law enforcement leaders seeking that extra edge:

- Push yourself to a higher level of thinking as it relates to personal and professional growth;
- Master the fundamentals of strategic thinking, planning, and political research;
- Gain knowledge and understanding of policy, how policy is made, and how to maximize the best interest of your agency;
- Exchange ideas and learn new skills in an interactive setting;
- Identify and plan for external and internal politics that impact your agency;
- Explore comparative policing models, emergent trends, and technology;
- Focus on aligning personal leadership styles and strengths with performance in your work environment

Academic Credit: Successful completion of PER21C can qualify* for undergraduate and graduate academic credit from the School of Law Enforcement and Justice Administration at Western Illinois University. (*Fees and restrictions would apply)
